

MEMORIAL HOLINESS CAMP

A Ministry of the Brethren In Christ

Code of Conduct for Youth & Youth Counselors

- All camper's vehicle keys must be turned in to the administration office upon arrival and campers cannot use their vehicles during camp.
- Campers are not permitted to leave the grounds without permission from the MHC Camp Director.
- All campers and counselors are expected to be prompt at all meals and meetings unless excused by the Youth Director.
- Campers are required to attend all classes, recreational activities and evening services.
- Boys are not permitted to enter the area of the girls' dormitories and the girls are not permitted to enter or visit anyone in the boys' section.
- All should give respect to the camp grounds, buildings and facilities. Individuals defacing Camp property or the natural surroundings must pay the damage incurred.
- Absolute quiet and attention is expected from every camper during classes and services. Enter the Tabernacle with a spirit of reverence and leave as orderly and quietly as possible. These services should be high moments of inspiration.
- Campers and counselors are required to stay in their dorms each night from the chosen "Lights Out" time until breakfast the following morning, except for special emergencies. No lights or noise is permitted in the dorms during sleeping hours.
- It is expected that everyone will dress modestly at all times.
- All campers are to remain in their assigned areas for sleeping. No "switching" is allowed without previous consent of the director or a counselor involved.
- While conversation and fellowship are allowed, there shall be no dating during youth camp. Boys shall not escort the girls to their dormitory or vice versa.
- Public display of affection of any kind is strictly prohibited.
- No radios, knives, guns, laser pointers, explosives (including fireworks), CD players or multi-media players of any kind are permitted at camp.
- Electronic Devices: these will be checked in upon arrival; we will have an allotted 15 minute time slot on the schedule each day for use to call home, if needed; if you need to contact your child at camp please contact the director or assistant director (numbers are on the packet cover letter and we will have them at check-in as well if needed)
- The use of tobacco, drugs or alcohol in any form will not be allowed on the camp grounds. All prescription drugs must be turned in to the camp nurse.
- No possession of pornography or any such like will be allowed on the grounds.
- Campers found guilty of theft or malicious damage to any articles by confession or evidence, shall forfeit all rights and may be asked to leave the campgrounds. The responsible party must make restitution for any damages.
- All students who attend the camp are subject to the rules and dress codes of the camp, and they are not allowed to leave the camp without special permission, until they have been officially withdrawn or been dismissed from the camp.
